

including expert's fees, incurred in connection with that enforcement effort, including in the investigation of the potential violation.

V. EXPIRATION OF FINAL JUDGMENT

This Final Judgment will expire upon payment in full by the Defendant of the civil penalty required by Section II of this Final Judgment.

VI. PUBLIC INTEREST DETERMINATION

Entry of this Final Judgment is in the public interest. The parties have complied with the requirements of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16, including making copies available to the public of this Final Judgment, the Competitive Impact Statement, and any comments hereon and the United States responses to comments. ~~As set forth in the Order of the Court, which includes the Competitive Impact Statement and any comments and response~~